

Schedule For 2006 Teachers Institute

- 8:00 Registration and coffee: Reid Hall
- 8:30 Welcome and announcements
- 8:35–9:05 Introduction to Teaching the Holocaust: Do's and Don'ts. Presenter: Seth Altman, Yorktown H.S.; USHMM Fellow
- 9:05–10:00 Keynote Address by Geoff Megargee, Senior Historian, US Holocaust Memorial Museum. Topic: The Holocaust and World War II
- 10:05-11:15 First Workshop Session
- 11:15-11:25 Break
- 11:30-12:40 Second Workshop Session
- 12:40-1:25 Lunch
- 1:30-2:30 Afternoon Workshop Session

Morning Workshops

First Session

- 1. Best Practices: Holocaust History for English Teachers. Presenters: Beth Kava, Pace University; Robin Schamberg, Fox Lane H.S.
- 2. Best Practices: Holocaust Literature for Social Studies Teachers. Presenters: Beth Aviv, Mamaroneck H.S.; Grace Caporino, SUNY Purchase; Helen Evans, Carmel H.S.
- 3. Going Beyond the Text: Role Playing and Real Life Dilemmas. Presenter: Michael Bobkoff, Westchester Community College.
- 4. Teaching the Holocaust and Human Rights in the Elementary Grades via Literature, Film, and the Arts. Presenters: Stephanie Harley, Greenacres School; Edee Tenser, Pace University.

Second Session

- 5. A World Behind Wire: The Nazi Camps. Presenter: Geoff Megargee
- 6. Going Beyond the Text: Role Playing and Real Life Dilemmas.
Presenter: Michael Bobkoff, Westchester Community College.
- 7. Film: Testimony of the Human Spirit. Presenter: Andy Cahn, Co-Director of Education, Holocaust and Human Rights Education Center.
- 8. From Bystanders to Upstanders: Strategies for Teaching Human Rights.
Presenters: Beth Quinn, Gorton H.S., Yonkers; Emma Wixted, Scarsdale M.S.

Afternoon Workshop

Using Survivor Testimony in the Classroom to Illustrate the Relevance of the Holocaust and Its Human Rights Lessons to Today's Students. Multiple sections. The presenter in each section is a Holocaust survivor, with a teacher as facilitator.